SUMMARY: Relations Between the Geographic Research Area, CIA, and the Special Advisor on Geography, Department of State

(3) Except as noted in Par. (2)(a), above, projects relating to a single Branch of the Geography Division will be accepted or rejected by the Branch Chief concerned; those that relate to more than one Branch will be relayed to the Division Chief for decision.

(4) The Special Advisor may reproduce elements of the substantive files of the Geography Division as needed, subject to limitations noted in Par. 2.c., below. Such reproduction will be at State Department expense. The Special Advisor will be placed on automatic distribution of USN's Geographic Intelligence Review and other issuances of interest.

(5) It is understood that the CIA will continue to perform independent research on territorial matters in support of its internal operations.

b. Cartographic Support

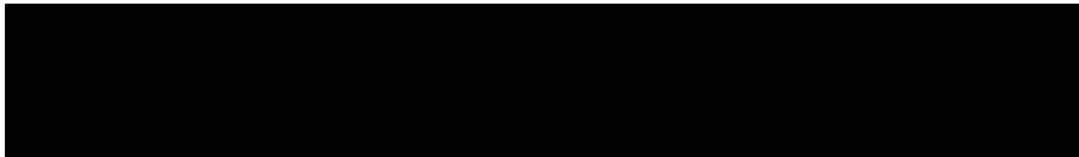

(1) Within its capabilities, the CIA will continue to provide cartographic support to the Department of State as required.

(2) The Special Advisor on Geography will be recognized by CIA as the sole channel for transmittal to the CIA of map requests originating in, or processed by, the Department of State.

c. Map Library Support

(1) The Map Library will continue to serve the special needs of the Department of State.
